

Guest Houses and B& B's in Edinburgh

Convenient to NBFAS

Here is a list of accommodations that are not too far from the David Hume Tower, where the Edinburgh NBFAS meeting will be held. These have been collated from information supplied by the Edinburgh and Lothians tourist board, and the star ratings are theirs. In the past the Rowan, Glenorchy and Fairholme Guest Houses have all been used by participants. No doubt there are others in the list that are as good or better. When further information is available (such as prices and numbers of rooms), there is a link from the guest house or B& B name.
